“Sammy the Bull” Gravano’s Seized Personal Jewelry Collection to be Sold
November 3rd by Sierra Auctions

PHOENIX, AZ – The personal jewelry collection of Salvatore “Sammy the Bull” Gravano will be sold at auction on November 3, 2007. The jewelry, seized for forfeiture pursuant to seizure warrant issued to the Phoenix Police Department with assistance from other law enforcement agencies, from Salvatore “Sammy the Bull” Gravano, bestselling author, federal prisoner and famously, John Gotti's underboss and hit man in the Gambino crime family. The Superior Court of Arizona for the County of Maricopa has ordered the Arizona Attorney General’s Office to sell these items and apply the funds toward satisfaction of its final judgments exceeding two million dollars against Mr. Gravano. The Arizona Attorney General’s Office selected Sierra Auction Management to act as its exclusive agent in selling all seized assets.

Gold and diamond key chains containing Gravano’s name and initials, watches, rings up to three karats and a bracelet bearing the name of Gravano’s wife, “Debbie”, will go to the highest bidders when the seized items go up for auction on Saturday, November 3 at 10 a.m. Sierra Auctions of Phoenix will conduct the auction at 3570 Grand Avenue in Phoenix.

Perspective bidders can preview the auction items Friday, November 2 from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Seized items from other agencies and cases also will be sold during the auction including additional jewelry, coins, vehicles and other items of interest. More than 2,500 lots will be sold!

Interested parties can preview all the seized and other items up for auction and bid for the items at www.sierrauction.com.
