The farm is known for its annual Pumpkin Festival, which started in 1985. Elmer Young began farming in Dewey in 1946 with about 80 acres, which grew to 324 acres and became the only fresh turkey farm in the state processing more than 100,000 chickens and turkeys annually. 2006, Young's Farm hosted their final series of festivals and fresh chicken, seasons of hay, sweet corn, pumpkins, and homegrown turkeys. It was sold to Monogram Cos. of Scottsdale for residential development at the end of 2006.
